Slice the loaf into 8 slices of 1 centimeter and fry them in 50 grams of butter on both sides until they are golden brown. Heat the remaining butter in a pan and gentry fry the mango and pomegranate seeds until they are golden brown. Add the egg mixture and cut out 8 small omelettes. Sprinkle the poppy seeds over the omelettes when they start to solidify. Stir the remaining orange peel into the quark. Serve the omelettes on the bread with a little quark on top. Garnish with red fruit and top them off with cress.
